4. General Rate Policy

The Advance reserves the right to revise its advertising rates at any time on 60 days written notice to contract holders, and contracts are accepted subject to this reservation. Contracts are required for bulk and frequency discounts and must be fulfilled within one year from the effective date. Contracts not fulfilled will be rebilled at the applicable rate.

If total lineage used during the contract period qualifies for additional discount, rebate will be made at end of contract period or upon receipt of revised contract. Non-contract space will be billed at open rate. Advertisers assume all liability for all content of advertisements printed, and advertiser represents that it is fully authorized and licensed to use the names, portraits and/or pictures of living persons and any copyrighted or trademarked material in any advertisement submitted by or on behalf of the advertiser. The advertiser further represents that there is nothing in such advertisement which is libelous, defamatory or invades the privacy of any person, or corporation. All advertising submitted is accepted subject to the approval of the publisher. Publisher reserves the absolute right, at any time without notice, to cancel an advertising order or reject any advertising copy or illustration, whether or not the same has already been acknowledged and/or previously published. The advertiser and agency agree to protect, indemnify and hold harmless the Advance against any and all liability, loss and expense of whatsoever nature (including counsel fees) arising out of the copying, printing or publication of the advertiser's advertisements. The Advance accepts no liability for failure to insert an advertisement for any cause. Liability for an error will not exceed the cost of space occupied by the error. Credit for errors allowed for the first insertion only. Claims for allowances for errors must be made within five days of date of insertion. No allowance made for omissions or errors in key numbers not included in original copy or materials. No credit allowed for errors unless complete layouts, copy and materials received in accordance with publisher's deadlines.

In no event shall publisher be liable to advertiser, agency or any other parties for any further damages of any kind arising from advertiser's placement of advertising, including but not limited to indirect, special or consequential damages or lost profits.

The Advance reserves the right to publish or reject late copy. Cancellations or changes in orders will not be accepted after closing, and none may be considered executed unless acknowledged by the publisher. Cancellation of any portion of an advertising contract on behalf of the advertiser automatically nullifies any rate protection and any preferred position reservation on the remainder of the contract. If a space discount has been deducted in paying for prior insertions on a cancelled contract, the advertiser shall reimburse publisher for any difference between the rate paid and the rate earned. Position requests are not guaranteed.

If advertiser utilizes an agency, advertiser and agency shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all bills and charges incurred. Any bill tendered by publisher shall be conclusive as to the correctness of the item or items therein set forth and shall constitute an account stated unless written objection is made thereto within ten days from the rendering thereof. Advertiser or agency may not use any space for the advertisement either directly or indirectly for any business organization, enterprise, product, or service other than that for which the advertising space is provided by publisher, nor may advertiser or agency authorize any others to use any advertising space. Interest will accrue at a rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month (or such other maximum amount as is permissible by law) on all past due balances. If it becomes necessary to place with an attorney for collection any claim for funds due, then advertiser and agency agree to pay to publisher a reasonable attorney's fee of twenty-five percent (25%) of the balance then unpaid. Publisher does not guarantee any given level of circulation or readership. Advertising placed by advertiser may include online advertising to appear on publisher's affiliated Web site. The terms and conditions of the Web site's rate card apply to such online advertising. Advertiser and agency recognize that the copyright in any advertisements created by publisher is owned by publisher. As to all other advertisements, advertiser and agency agree that publisher has the non-exclusive right, for the full term of copyright, by itself or through third parties, to republish and re-use any advertisements submitted in any form in which the advertisements may be published or used (in any media now in existence or hereafter developed) in whole or in any part, whether or not combined with material of others. Publisher is not responsible for any inadvertent or legally compelled disclosure of advertising information. All issues relating to advertising will be governed by the laws of the State of New York. Any action based on or alleging a breach of this rate card must be commenced in a state or federal court in the State of New York. The foregoing terms (and the terms of the advertising agreement between publisher and advertiser and/or agency, if any) shall govern the relationship between publisher and advertiser and agency. Unless expressly agreed to in writing signed by publisher, no other terms and conditions in insertion orders, copy instruction, letters, or otherwise will be binding on publisher.
